ABOUT THE HIGH SCHOOL.

What are we going to do about providing the necessary room for the largely increased number of pupils seeking admittance to the high school grades? It is a fact that, already, the rooms are overcrowded and next year the situation will be worse—even serious—without some adequate preparation for taking care of the large number to enter from the grade below. Something must be done. Who of us are willing to stand by and permit this inadequate condition to prevail in the face of our children who are looking to us for their every need and equipment, that they may be the stronger for life's duties and responsibilities? Dothan must rise to the occasion. If a modern, well-equipped building is what she needs, and it cannot be deferred without injustice to her children to a later date, then she cannot cry "hard times," but, if necessary, do almost the impossible and erect to her honor and pride and laudable ambition, a building worthy of the cause.

It is possible. There is a way to get this new high school building without it's being an encumbrance or burden to the town or its citizens. If so, then let us find the way and all join hands in an enterprises that will bring greater returns to our advancement and educational uplift, than paved streets, electric cars, or another railroad.

Let everybody come out to the meeting to be held at the Courthouse next Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of looking into the merits of this movement. Mothers, fathers, friends, citizens all are invited to be present.

THAT HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING.

The old-time high schools have ceased to exist. Consequently, there is a gap in the educational system. The question, how to revive the high schools and bridge the breach between the common schools and the colleges, has for several years been an all-absorbing topic. The importance of high schools is once more seizing the whole country. The wave has struck Dothan.

The number of our high school pupils has doubled in a year or two, now, what we need first and worst is a building in which to accommodate them. Surely we shall have it. Money is no consideration when the interest of one's child is at stake, for in the social economy it was provided by nature that human beings should not be indifferent about the welfare of their children unto the third and fourth generations. Why should one care what happens long after one is dead. But one who does not may be human, but not humane at least so far as his descendents are concerned. That interest alone will build this high school home.

But in Dothan it is also a question of immediate relief, a question of present and pressing need. The high school certainly can not grow in its present quarters. But it must grow. "If I rest I rust," says an old German proverb. If we do not make room at once for the continual growth of the high school it will certainly retrograde and the question may die out. To allow such would be to pursue a suicidal policy. There is nothing that would give our town more increased dignity and importance than a modern well equipped high school building. I should say first, rather if there is any condition of which Dothan should be ashamed, it is the present provision for the accommodation of our crowded high school. Visitors go away and criticise us severely. We haven't even marching room for large pupils. If the building should catch on fire it would be impossible to avoid congestion, therefore, panic. It is like Bedlam broken loose every time we move in the building now.

BOOM SOUTH IS SLOGAN OF BIG CONGRESS.

Washington, Dec 7.—When Secretary Straus, of the department of commerce and labor, called to order the first session of the Southern Commercial Congress, in the New Willard this morning, there began perhaps the largest convention ever held in this country devoted to commercial publicity.

Delegates are pouring in from the business organizations of the South, fifteen states being represented with delegates from fifty two commercial bodies. It is estimated 2000 men are present.

In the large ante-room of the auditorium, the committee has arranged maps, picutres and charts showing the immense natural resources of the South, with proper explanations showing just how detailed information may be obtained about these resources. The committee of arrangements was assured yesterday that the program would be carried out in its entirety and that every speaker mentioned would be present.

Interesting Displays.

At the end of the room is hung a large map furnished by Gifford Pinchot, displaying the forest areas of the United States and presenting graphically the argument of the South in favor of the passage of the Appalachian bill which comes before congress on Wednesday.

Other charts and maps portray the improvements in the Southern rural mail service and the advantages of Dixieland in coal, cotton, agriculture, stock raising, water powers and minerals.

Exhibits have been placed in the room by delegations from Savannah, Nashville, Augusta, Jacksonville and Montgomery.

Every effort has been made to keep politics out of the deliberations of the congress, which is to be a conference of business for business men.

Every Southern state is represented. Large delegations from Albany, Savannah, Atlanta, Columbus, Augusta, Macon, Chattanooga, Nashville, Montgomery, New Orleans and Jacksonville, arrived here yesterday.

Governor Smith Present.

Among the arrivals are Governor Hoke Smith, of Georgia, who has taken a suite of rooms to be used as Georgia headquarters, and at which open house will be kept. Judge George Hillyer of Atlanta, is also present.

Among those on the committee of arrangements are W. G. Cooper of Atlanta and John A. Betjeman of Albany. Mr. Betjeman has been named floor secretary.

METHODISTS OF TROY.

Rev. O. S. Welch Shows Work Done By Church.

Troy, Ala., Dec 7.—Rev. O. S. Welch who will leave tomorrow for the conference at Greensboro yesterday read his report.

The reports shows a most excellent financeil condition as well as a decided growth in the membership of the Methodist Church of Troy. The valuation of the church property was shown to be about $60,000, with a debt of only about $10,000 on the property and most of this has been subscribed. The membership is now about 640.

Mr. Welch has done excellent work during the three years he has been in charge of the church here and is greatly beloved by Trojans of every denomination who hope very much that he will be returned by the conference.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR ALABAMA RIVERS.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—The Secretary of the Treasury transmitted to congress today estimates of appropriations required for the coming fiscal year.

For Alabama the following are the figures for river and harbor improvements: Mobile Harbor, $92,000; Mobile bar, $50,000; Coosa River between Rome, Ga. and Lock No. 4, Alabama, $100,000; Alabama river, continuing improvement and maintenance, $200,000; Tombigbee river from mouth to Demopolis, $26,000; from Demopolis to Columbus, Miss., $22,000; from Columbus to Walker's bridge, $5,000; Tennessee river by opening channel work from Chattanooga to Riverton, Ala., $230,000; Tennessee River below Riverton, $50,000; Chatawatchie River (Florida and Georgia), for maintenance of improvement, including Cypress Top outlet, $10,000.

DR. MacARTHUR OPPOSES CHRISTMAS TREE CUSTOM.

New York, Dec. —If it was left with Dr. Robert S. MacArthur of the Cavalry Baptist Church the custom of having Christmas trees would be abandoned.

"How came we to adopt this custom which is one of the customs taken from the heathen. We are deforesting many portions of our state and country. We ought to save the trees to give shade. To do my share in the work, I have forbidden the purchase of evergreen trees in this church for the coming holidays."

Taft says it is time to break the solid South. Go ahead Mr. Taft. There are whole brigades of Southerners who are not averse to receiving good Federal appointments, and the balance of the army would enjoy good treatment, and that is what we allow he means.

A man can never be over-capitalized without having any.

No little children, Santa Claus hasn't shaved off that long white beard. That was meerly a fake report gotten up by some razor manufacturer.

Just as the papers were recovering from the spell the election brought on, the President takes a shot at a couple of newspaper men, and puts the papers to discussing him again, instead of Santa Claus

That little three-year-old ruler of China has a big job. If he knew what was a head of him, he would come right on over on the next steamer, and open a laundry, as soon as he is old enough. By doing this he would escape much trouble that he is destined to endure, trying to keep four hundred million peole whipped into the ranks.

You give most any of us two columns and a half of six point, and we could call a man a liar, and then say a few scattering remarks here and yonder about the newspaper fraternity that would be readable. President Roosevelt has gone over into Indiana to get a member of his Ananias Club, then over into New York for another, and the theory possibly, that its membership should be scattered in the doubtful states

Like all trials that come off in other sections of the country, people living at a distance never get a proper perspective of the surrounding. When we know the parties, the environment, the people in the neighborhood, we can then better judge where the guilt should be placed It is a pretty safe way, though, to size a man up like his neighbors do If they believe a man is a good man, he is usually If they believe him a bad man, you might go slow till you have had cause to find out for yourself.

The Bessemer Weekly is sick of prohibition. It is thoroughly of the opinion that prohibition has caused all of the hard times they have had in that town for a year The editor believes that local option is the thing. Every man has his own opinion about the use of liquor. We haven't sold any liquor in Dothan for some time, but it is a hard matter to find a business man in Dothan who will tell you that we would have a better town if whiskey was sold here. This town doesn't need whiskey to make it a live town. True, there are some who will patronize the fellows at Jacksonville, Pensacola, Chattanooga, and other places, but they are in the main, people who can drink whiskey and not go wild Prohibition will not keep that class from drinking whiskey, and never will, as long as it is made, but it keeps it away from thousands who go wild, or to the dogs, as soon as they get a drink

THEY LOOK NO BETTER.

The delineator artist fellow bothers a good deal about once a month, when all the fashion plates arrive on the Paris boat. He is a study, but needs a lesson that he has not learned

Take the batch of models he's working off on the millinery world today, and he found a bunch of women who had just got up from a long and serious spell of illness which left them a perfect wreck, and a thin shadow, They looked droop eyed, and have a lot in the forward appearance that their ma wouldn't recognize on the streets

They all need a flesh-building food, and why the manufacturers of sawdust and shavings from veneering mills, don't take up the lot and feed them on this food from their mills as an advertisement, is a wonder to us. These ladies would take it as a blessing and would be living witnesses to testify of the good of this sweetened, and milked excelsior food that is sold by every groser.

Now the dresses the artist made might have done very well, but for one chief error He made the dresses (beg pardon—gowns) and then tried to find a woman for a model who could fit the dress, and the poor fellow had to search through hospitals and infirmaries from one end of the town to the other, before he found the subjects to fill those gowns as the artist planned them He could find no ordinary handsome woman to fit those creations he fell in love with which accounts for the lot he is showing this winter

The style might be called a convalescent one and we trust that it's recovery will be sure and complete, restoring those models to their usual good health and weight and filling out the places that wasted away during the trying ordeal.

One who has been familiar with real estate values in Dothan for the last fifteen years can readily see how it is possible for one to make a million dollars honestly To have bought property in the right place, and at the right time would have meant much money owing to the rise in values

This means that a total of 12[illegible] miles has been completed out of the 156 miles of road surveyed from Miami to Key West The feats of this wonderful line however is yet to be completed This is the eleven mile gap from Knight's Key to Bahia Honda where the line is being carried over the open ocean on concrete arches

COST OF THE PANAMA CANAL

Hallert P Gillette editor of Engineering Contracting, has been [illegible] some figures respecting the ultimate cost of the Panama canal It will be recalled, says the Savannah News that the original estimates placed the cost of a lock canal at $140 000 000 and of a sea level canal at $247 000 000 Mr Gillette says that the figures furnished by Col Goethals the engineer in charge of the canal show that its cost will be at least $210 000 000 This of course has reference to a lock canal and does not include the $50 000 000 paid for the canal property

This is an increase of about fifty per cent over the original estimates The American people will be satisfied if the canal is completed at a cost that is double the original estimates It was freely predicted when those estimates were made that the cost would be much greater It is now stated that last winter before one of the committees of Congress Col Goethals admitted that the cost might reach $400 000 000 There will be no great surprise if it should be even greater than that amount It is only seldom that the engineers of a great work come anywhere near estimating what the real cost will be It is a safe prediction that when the whole cost of the Panama canal is summed up it will be found to be close to $500 000 000 That will include the amount paid the French Company And there are no charges that there is graft

Why Take Unnecessary Steps

Dear Mr Husband

Some day when your wife [illegible] up after it sit down in your [illegible] and count the steps she takes in getting your [illegible]. Then after you have eaten it go out in the kitchen [illegible] and count the steps she has to take to put things away.

She can save those thousands of more extra steps every day just as well as not and you can do your share [illegible] her to do so by getting her a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet. This great labor saver costs but little (not as much as you might have thought).

It saves steps to the cupboard, to the sink, to the kitchen table and to the pantry.

It saves her labor, gives her time to do other things [illegible] her pleasure, keeps expenses down [illegible] it prevents waste of food, time and patience. It keeps her spirit up and makes her work lighter.

It is a little thing for you to do this buying a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet but it means much to her. Get it for her [illegible]. One cigar less a day would pay for a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet for her in a short time.
